Rewards – Effort – Achievement – Conduct – Hard Work

LANDAU FORTE ACADEMY AMINGTON

How do I achieve credits?

- Tutors can reward students with 1 or 3 credits at any one time according to the criteria below.
- 5 or 10 credits can also be awarded directly by the Principal, administered by the General Office, in accordance with the criteria below.

Credit	Tutor Criteria	Principal Criteria
1	Good quality work produced in relation to ability. Positive, helpful or supportive behaviour towards others. Particularly good effort in a learning session.
3	Outstanding quality of work produced in relation to ability. Outstandingly positive or supportive behaviour towards others.	Average effort levels 1.5 to 2 achieved on Progress Data Report to parents. 100% attendance in a term, a certificate is generated. Good Annual Attendance (96 - 97.9%), a letter to parents and certificate is generated.
5		Outstanding annual attendance (98 – 99.9%), a letter to parents and certificate is generated.
10	Tutors can nominate students for 'The Exceptional Award.' This Award is for student achievement that is truly exceptional. Nomination forms are available from the General Office; they must be seconded by Head of House and approved by the Principal.	Average effort level 1 to1.5 achieved on a Progress Data Report to parents. 100% annual attendance. Principal approves 'The Exceptional Award,' a letter to parents and a certificate is presented by the Principal.

Awards

- Credits will accumulate throughout your time at the Academy and once you reach a certain level an Award will be given for your achievement.
- There are three categories to aim for in Years 7 to 11, Bronze, Silver and Gold, with each category providing different and exciting Awards to aim for.
- All Awards gained will be presented to students in Gathering with a Certificate of Achievement.
- A statement of your place on the REACH scheme will be made on each Personal Tutor Progress Review (PT Report) to parents. This will show the number of credits achieved to date and the Award level reached.

The Platinum Award (discretionary)

At the end of your education at the Academy, exceptional performance may result in you achieving the Platinum Award as recognition of your continued effort, achievement and support during your time at the Academy. Exceptional performance will be determined by a number of factors, including the number of credits you have achieved.

Examples of the Award include PDA/Laptop/PC.

House Awards

Credits gained by each Tutor Group will be totalled every term and the results will be published in Gathering and displayed on the plasma screens.

At the end of the academic year a trophy will be awarded to the House with the highest number of credits overall.
